

In comparison to rides without the app, I feel less secure because using the app distracts me from traffic.

The speed recommendation encourages me to engage in riskier driving behavior.

