

It helps me orient myself that I can see my position and route during the ride.

I am more comfortable on the road with the speed recommendations than without.

