

The route planning via the app is clear and intuitive.

I plan my route so that I get the largest possible section with available traffic light predictions.

